Patricia Wilson is a designer, artist, and published author living in Sarasota, Florida with her husband, Jack, and Tito the Cat.

Artist Statement

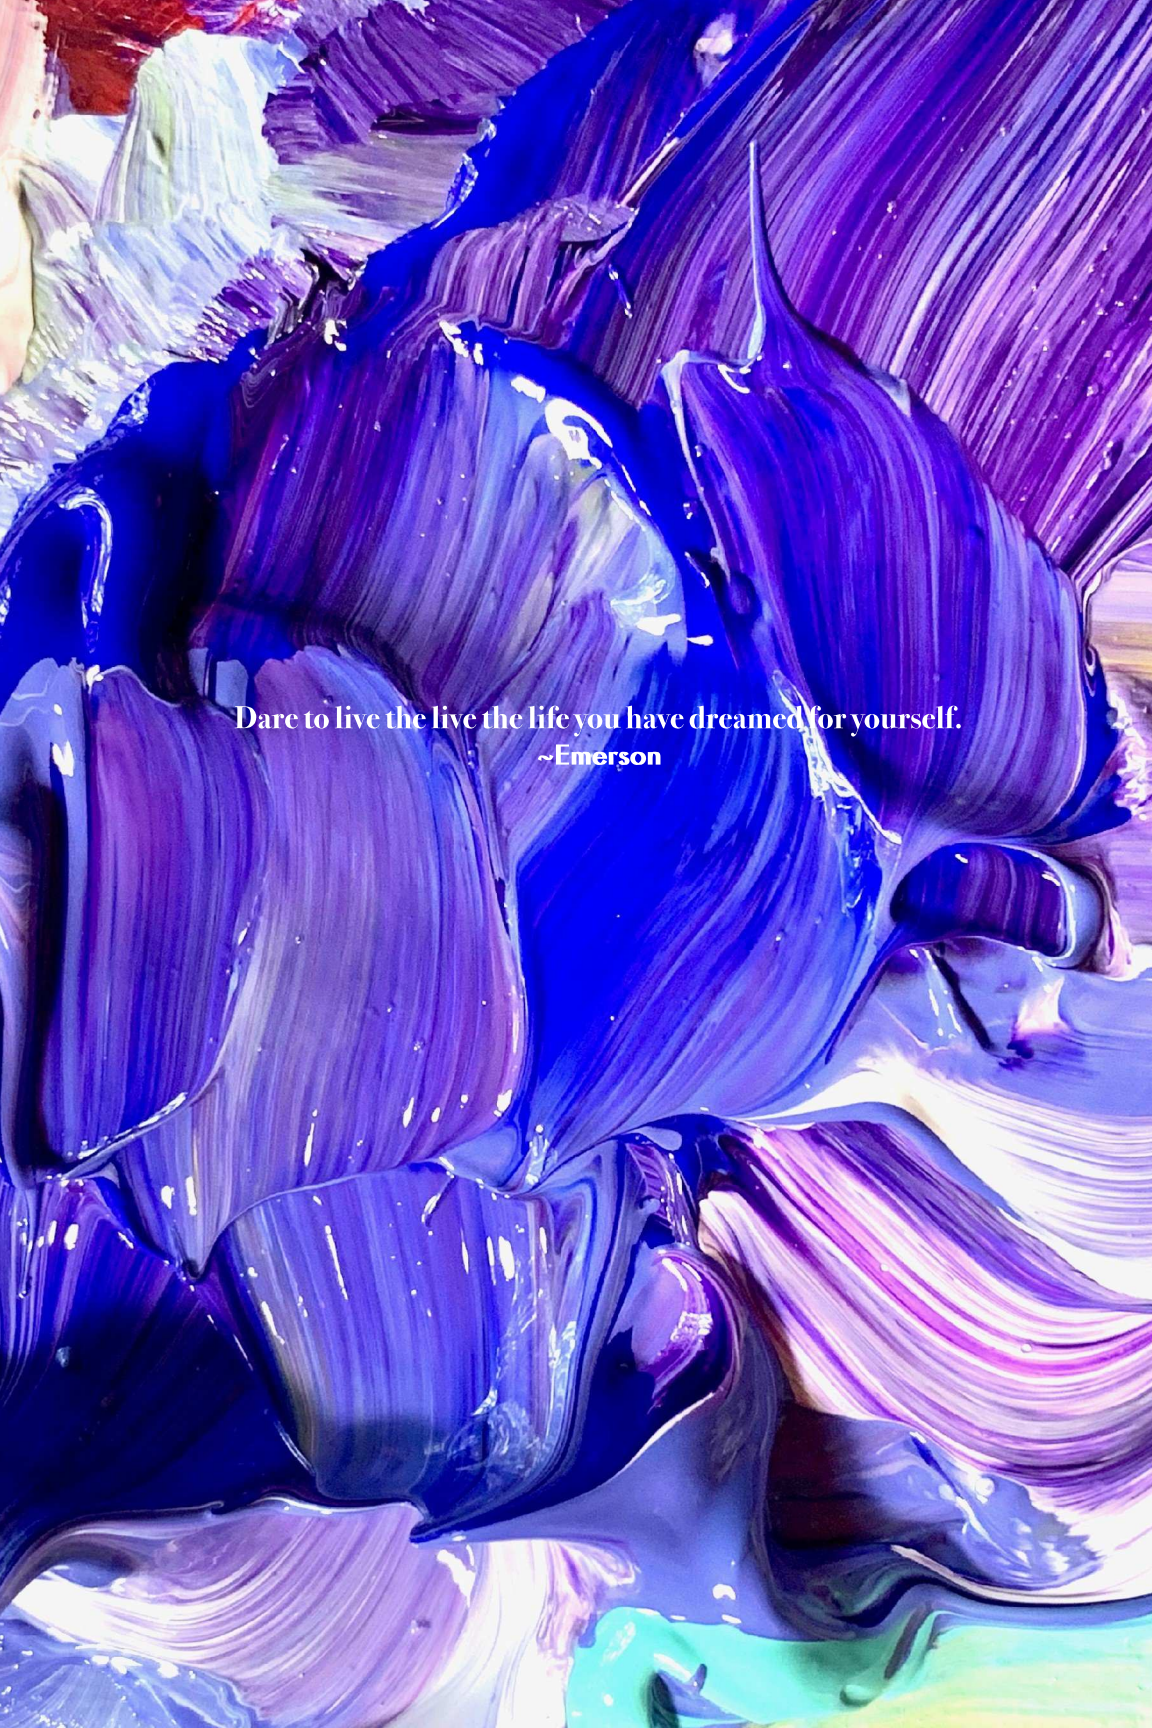

I've had a lifelong passion for flowers, color, and the sea. My artwork is based on nature's Sacred Geometry (also known as the Golden Mean) inherent in every leaf, petal and shell.

Mission

I truly believe that art, design and color have amazing power at the energetic level to positively impact our moods and enhance our sense of well-being. My only mission is to uplift and create beauty!

The background is a vibrant, abstract composition of thick, expressive brushstrokes. The dominant colors are various shades of purple, from deep indigo and violet to bright magenta and fuchsia. These are interspersed with strokes of deep blue and hints of light green and yellow, particularly in the upper left and bottom right corners. The strokes are layered and textured, creating a sense of depth and movement, reminiscent of a modern abstract painting or a digital art style that mimics paint application. The overall effect is one of intense energy and creative freedom.

Dare to live the live the life you have dreamed for yourself.
~Emerson
